Including the Second Magistrate's Court, Shimoga, and the temporary Additional District Court, Bangalore, there were 34 Courts exercising original jurisdiction and 11 including four Additional Subordinate Judges at Bangalore, Kolar, Mysore and Chitaldrug, and the temporary Additional District Judge's Court exercising appellate jurisdiction. The disposals were 88 as against 104 in the corresponding quarter of the previous year and the number pending was 626.

(a) DISTRICT COURTS (4).

III Original Work.—The number of suits instituted and disposed of was 12 and 13 respectively as against 12 and 3 in the corresponding quarter of the previous year and the number pending was 238 against 239 in the previous quarter.

(b) SUB-COURTS (3).

The institutions and disposals were 50 and 43 respectively as against 54 and 57 in the corresponding quarter of the previous year and the number of cases pending was 474 against 467 in the previous quarter.

The presiding officers are requested to see that the disposals are better.

The numbers of Small Cause suits instituted and disposed of were 2050 and 1541 respectively as against 1808 and 1494 in the corresponding quarter of the previous year and the number pending was 2756 against 2247 in the previous quarter.

The numbers of Original suits instituted and disposed of were 4023 (including four transferred suits) and 3091 respectively as against 3979 and 2997 in the corresponding quarter of the previous year and the pendency was 12,047 suits against 11,119 in the previous quarter.

The institutions and disposals of Small Cause suits were 4097 (including 210 transferred cases) and 2910 respectively as against 3755 and 2979 in the corresponding quarter of the previous year and the number pending was 4655 against 3678 in the previous quarter.

The number of original and Small Cause suits pending over one year was 4471 and 421 respectively as against 4296 and 324 in the previous quarter.

The presiding officers of the several Civil Courts should pay particular attention to the disposal of old suits and to the reduction of pendency.

The increase in the pendency is partly due to the intervention of the Summer Vacation and partly to the institution of large number of cases after the re-opening of the courts, which could not be disposed of before the end of the quarter under review.
